What does ZitNavWS do:

ZitNavWS is a console application that imports data from BussinesCentral to HQRIO inside the following tables:
- Products
- PriceListsDetails
- SKU
- Sizes.

And is also exporting data like StoreDayCloses and MoneyMovements to BussinesCentral

How to install it:

Access http://portal.sbsoftware.ro/ipos/ZitNavWS%20-%20BusinessCentral%20Connector/ download the .zip file and extract it in C:\BBC

Configuration:

First Set Version inside app.config:
- "V1" for older integrations, on premise, with Username/Password authentication (GiseCaffe,Zucchini)
- "V2" for newer integrations (from 2024/08), with OAuth authentication (RH+ and others)

For Version V1 you need to complete the following parameters:
- WSUsername
- WSPassword
- BusinessCentralCompanyName
- BusinessCentralUrl
- VatCode
- Leave All other fields empty or if they are not empty please set them as such

For Version V2 you need complete the following parameters:

- Default product Attributes:
  - SizeClassCode as "-
  - ProductSubfamilyCode as "-"
  - VatCode

- Oauth credentials:
  - ClientId
  - ClientSecret
  - TokenEndPoint
  - Scope
  - BuisinessCentralCompanyName
  - BusinessCentralUrl

How to use it:

You can find it the application inside C:\BBC\ZitNavWS - BussinessCentral. Inside this folder the application is named ZitNavWS.exe.

You launch the application and a console window will appear after completion the console window will close, and inside the folder a new .txt file will appear named ZitNavWsLog{yyyyM}.txt, please check inside the log file to see if any error appears or if it completed successfully.